

The Tenses

	Active simple	Active continuous/progressive	Passive simple	Passive continuous/progressive
Present Tense	Simple Present S+verb(conj.) I drive He drives	Present Progressive S+be(conj.)+verb(present participle) I am driving He is driving	Simple Present Passive S+be(conj.)+verb(past participle) I am driven He is driven
Past Tense	S+verb(past) I drove He drove	S+was/were+verb(present participle) I was driving You were driving	S+was/were+verb(past participle) I was driven He was driven / You were driven
Present Perfect	S+have(conj.)+verb(past participle) I have driven He has driven	S+have(conj.)+been+verb(present participle) I have been driving He has been driving	S+have(conj.)+been+verb(past participle) I have been driven He has been driven
Past Perfect	S+had+verb(past participle) I had driven He had driven	S+had+been+verb(present participle) I had been driving He had been driving	S+had+been+verb(past participle) I had been driven He had been driven
Future	S+will+verb(Inf.) I will drive He will drive	S+will+be+verb(present participle) I will be driving He will be driving	S+will+be+verb(past participle) I will be driven He will be driven
Future II
Conditional	S+would+verb(Inf.) I would drive He would drive	S+would+be+verb(present participle) I would be driving He would be driving
Conditional II	S+would+have+verb(past participle) I would have driven He would have driven

Inf. = Verb in the infinitive
 Conj. = Verb has to be conjugated according to the subject
 Past = Verb in the 2nd form
 Past participle = Verb in the 3rd form
 Present participle = Verb in the continuous/progressive form